My wife and I spent 4 glorious nights in this wonderful hotel. We arrived at 7 PM on our first day. Our room was beautifully made up, and a bottle of champagne on ice was waiting our arrival. Staff ran a bath for us, candles and rose petals, and we were able to relax prior to dinner.

We had dinner in the hotel on two of our four nights. The food was fresh and the presentation excellent. Breakfasts were a delight. We were never rushed and the service always attentive. The hotel has an extensive list of New Zealand's best wines.

We had drinks in the hotel every evening and the staff were always interesting to talk to. On the evenings we had dinner at the hotel we were treated to some spectacular opera singing from some of New Zealand's finest opera singers.

My wife and I both had a massage in the spa. Another wonderful experience. The ambience was excellent.

Our hosts, Francis and Stephen, were friendly and made us feel extraordinarily welcome. Staff members, Jack, Joanna, Henry, and many others made us feel at home.

Mollies is located in a quiet location near fashionable shops and restaurants. Getting about was easy. We had Mollies choose a restaurant for us and we were delighted with their choice.

Our room was large with floor to ceiling modern french windows that opened onto a delightful garden. We had a grand piano, open fire, and comfortable furniture. We had a separate bedroom with a king size bed that was extremely comfortable and soft white linen sheets. All rooms were bright and airy.

Mollies constantly delighted us.
