Mollies is the most wonderful hotel we have ever had the pleasure of staying at (and we've stayed at some pretty amazing hotels!)

The stunning interior design is complimented by wonderful food and wine, staff that constantly 'go the extra mile' to make you feel welcome and at home, and special touches like antique harps or grand pianos in the rooms. From our stays, we absolutely adore rooms 1 and 3.

This is truly a world-class establishment. Auckland is worth a visit just to stay at Mollies. Even more so if you have a passion for music, as you may be lucky enough to hear some of the finest opera singers in New Zealand at the pre-dinner recital.
