

“My Very Favorite Hotel!!”

I am a bit late in writing this but was posting reviews of my stay in South Africa and realized I had forgotten to post on New Zealand from January 2007.

This is without a doubt my very favorite city hotel ever.

The owner is so charming and friendly as is the staff. The decor is all in very comfortable, flowing fabrics of shabby chic. Her husband, who designed opera sets in New York City, decorated it. My bathroom was luxurious marble and so nice. The bedroom had a large gold harp in the corner!

She has been an opera instructor for years and her students perform at night in the small living room. She plays the piano while they sing beautiful opera.

The food is fantastic as well. I really did not want to leave.

They have two cats on the property and if you wish you can ask the front desk if one of them can sleep in your room.

I would return here in a heartbeat. Loved it!!!
